

John,

Here is a rough draft of the speech that I will be making in Philadelphia to our blacks. When you talk to some of their leaders, be sure to make up a story of how you were able to expose yet another Jim Crow plot by the Republicans. That oughta get them howling for more. Oh, and make sure you book a gospel singer for the event. Have them sing "I believe I can fly", and make sure the singer grabs your hand during the chorus. Man, they will be bucking all in the aisles at that point. Follow my instructions, and the black vote will be yours.

Your Brotha (LOL)
Bill

I say to you my black ~~niggas~~ brothers and sisters; the ~~big~~ white house is at stake this election season. ~~That Yank~~ G.W. Bush is no friend to our ~~plantation~~ cause. Just as you have ~~blindly~~ supported me, I ask that you will do the same for your new ~~Massa~~ President, John Kerry. ~~Sure, he doesn't play the saxophone, or live in the hood like the rest of us black folk, but~~ He will do well by you. He has given me his word that he will keep ~~you in your place~~ hope alive, because like me, he realizes that ~~you are too ignorant to do it for yourselves~~ freedom is to be enjoyed by all people. That is why he has asked me to join him on this quest; because it seems that some of you ~~are getting confused who to vote for~~ just need a little encouragement. After I ~~gave him the 411 on the black mind~~ explained to him the importance of addressing the needs of African-Americans, he then had a better understanding of the task at hand. I asked for some insight from the NAACP on what to do. They told us ~~that the fear of Jim Crow works every time we needed to reassure you that the DNC will not take your vote for granted. In other words, scare the niggas to vote for you.~~

So please make sure you vote for ~~Massa~~ your future President, John Kerry. He will make sure that ~~the~~ ~~plantation~~ America is safe. And remember, he has a plan ~~whip~~.
